Dear Mr. Hazard:

As you are aware, we are nationalizing the above referenced PCT application into the U.S. On February 4, 2000, you signed a document in which you assigned all of your entire right, title, and interest for the United States of America, and throughout the world, in this invention to Quixtar Investments, Inc. In this document you also agreed to execute all papers in connection with this application. On or about September 1, 2001, we mailed copies of this application to you along with a declaration for your signature. On September 7, 2001, I had a discussion with you over the telephone in which you stated that you refused to sign the declaration, contrary to the terms of the above referenced assignment document. We are now proceeding with nationalizing this application without your signature as allowed by 37 C.F.R. 1.47(a). Please note that you may subsequently join this application by filing an oath or declaration complying with 37 C.F.R. 1.63.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
